"He is not here, but he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day." And they remembered his words. - Lk 24:6-8

The second offering next weekend will be the Peter's Pence collection. This collection enables the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to our brothers and sisters in need throughout the world – those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and nature disasters. Thank you so much for your support.

The sanctuary candle will burn this week in memory of:

George Lasek

This is a venerable tradition and we ask you to keep him in your prayers.

From Fr. Golas,

Today, we celebrate with great joy our belief that Jesus is Risen and so we have hope for new life now through faith and one day a resurrection from the dead. Today, we grapple with a mystery that can never fully be understood yet it can be experienced through faith. The disciples in the gospel gradually come to comprehend the meaning that Jesus is alive and all his words and works were vindicated. They would in time accept the challenge of discipleship and witness often to a hostile society their belief in their Risen master. As we celebrate this Easter with joy, festival and thanksgiving, may we be aware of the continuing challenge to respond with our faith in the Risen Lord to the many facets of daily lives that often face the scrutiny if not the criticism and rejection of our society.

May we be filled with the excitement, joy and vitality of those first disciples who realized that first Easter: "Jesus is alive".

As the Religious Education year is drawing to a close, I would like to inform the parish of a change in staff in this area of parish ministry. As of June 1, Mary Lou Meigs will be leaving as coordinator of our program to pursue further educational opportunities. Deacon Thomas Sutak will assume responsibility for the religious education program at this time. Best wishes to both

During the month of April supplies will be collected for the Farmington Food Pantry. They have reported they could really use the following items: tuna, cereal, jelly, healthy snacks for kids such as juice boxes, individual packaged fruits, pasta sauce, cooking oils, spaghettios, paper products and canned fruits. The collection will run through April 29.

BAKED GOODS FOR SALE

Next weekend bread, apple and blueberry pies and brownies will be sold by the Dominican Sisters of West Hartford. Proceeds of the sales will be used to buy medical supplies for their mission to support lepers.

CURRENT ISSUES WITH MSGR. DAVID Q. LIPTAK

The Adult Faith Formation Committee invites you to an evening with Msgr. David Q. Liptak, Executive Editor of the Catholic Transcript to be held in the church on Thursday, April 19 at 7:00 PM. Msgr. Liptak is a well-known speaker and author and is expertly informed about issues of concern to Catholics and the Church. The topics he will address include Pope John Paul II and Communism today and Our Faith and Bioethics. We are most fortunate to have him with us. Please join us. Refreshments to follow.

LECTORS NEEDED

The parish is currently seeking new lectors! A minimum of three additional lectors and another three substitutes are needed. Please consider participating in this very important and rewarding ministry. If you are interested or have questions, please contact Rosemary Frombach 673-3471 or Brian Beisel 674-1874. Thank you.

We thank all who were so generous with their Easter memorial donation to the flower fund. Our sanctuary is a beautiful tribute to the presence of our risen Christ and those who have shared with our community in worship and prayer.
