John Harris

This is a venerable tradition and we ask you to keep him in your prayers.

From Fr. Golas,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). As Catholics we are greatly blessed to have the Sacrament of the Eucharist as the visible and tangible way the Risen Lord is close to us. In this Sacrament which draws us together on the Lord's Day, we listen to the Lord's words in our Scripture readings and we receive the Lord in Holy Communion. This Sacrament is our source of renewal and revitalization as we daily strive to live according to the Lord's gospel. As we enter the worship space for Mass, we recognize that it is sacred space consecrated for praise and worship. Signs posted at the entrance distinguish the space as different from the gathering space by alerting us that "No Food or Drink is permitted inside." The food that we receive in the worship space is the bread of life, the Eucharist. May we honor the presence of the Lord in this Sacrament by our prayerful and respectful attitude before, during and after Mass.

The Focus question for Most Holy Trinity Sunday, June 3, 2012 "B" Cycle: When have you looked around you with a special appreciation of God's awesome creating power at work?

I will be away from June 14 – 18.

The recipients attended the Guild's Annual Banquet where they were each awarded $1500 towards their first year of college. Best wishes to Hollie and Amanda for a successful college experience. Funds for these scholarships were raised by the Guild through various fund-raising projects.
