Religious Education News

*You don't call ...
You don't write ...
What's up?*

The start of the 2012/2013 religious education year is just a few weeks away – What are you waiting for? We still need catechists in the following grades:

Grade Level	1	2	3	5	6	7
Needed	2	1	6	2	1	1

Without instructors classes cannot be scheduled - leaving a Home Study (parent administered) curriculum as the only option. Hart House hall monitors are also needed for us to be compliant with the "Protecting God's Children" requirements set forth by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Parents who wait patiently while their children are in class are asked to consider volunteering as a hall monitor.

If you have any inclination to help support our program, please contact Deacon Tom Sutak as soon as possible as there are USCCB and Archdiocesan requirements that must be completed before one can begin working with or directly supervising minor children. Please note, team teaching is encouraged. Class schedules are flexible (within the constraints of our resources) and tuition is waived for instructors/hall monitors. tel: (860) 675-8522 e-mail: st.mary.re@sbcglobal.net

St. Mary's Human Needs Committee extends its gratitude for the flip tabs from metal beverage containers that were collected in June. About 60 lbs. were donated for the Shiners' Hospitals for Children. We would also like to thank you for the wonderful donation of school supplies that was collected the first weekend of August for the Town of Farmington. Your donations are greatly appreciated and will be put to good use. There are many families in town that can use the assistance. The committee will meet Weds., Sept. 19 at 7:00 p.m. in the Hospitality Room. All are welcome. If you have any questions, please contact Alice Crozier 860-673-4282.

A Family Perspective

by Bud Ozar

In today's Gospel Jesus speaks of eating his flesh and blood. Parents can identify with this, for they often feel devoured by all the demands of family life. This is unavoidable for children grow in the soil of sacrificial love. Parenting is not part time work. It is a consuming lifetime commitment.

Parish Prayer Line

If you or someone in your family is in need of prayers and would like to be added to our parish prayer list, please call Joyce Cruess at 860 673-2945.

FUN committee is looking for your help with the Parish Picnic. Have you been thinking about volunteering for something, but just didn't know what? St. Mary's FUN committee is hoping to gather new members to help run events like the Parish Picnic, Children's Christmas Craft Workshop, and the annual Mardi Gras party. We are also in need of judges for our Cookie Baking Contest on the day of the picnic. If you are interested in helping with one of these events, or all of these events, please contact Sarah Rice to find out more. - phone #860-255-7531 or email her at skpetty_99@yahoo.com.

Church Chuckles

As Stuart tidied up the kitchen after dinner, he realized the broom had been left outside on the porch. "Cindy, go out back and get the broom, please." Cindy was scared and reminded her dad she was afraid of the dark. "Don't worry, Cindy, Jesus is out there to watch over you." Cindy went to the back door, opened it a crack, and whispered, "Jesus, could you please hand me the broom?"
