Poinsettias

Legend tells about a boy who had no gift to put by the figure of baby Jesus in church on Christmas Eve. On his way to Mass, he prayed before God and the Angels to forgive him for not having an offering. While he knelt down at a window outside the Church Altar his tears flowed and when he looked down behold a beautiful flower had grown. He picked the flower and laid it by Mary in the stable. Dr. Joel Robert Poinsett, South Carolina congressman, Secretary of War under President Martin Van Buren and amateur botanist, first set eyes on the crimson flora while serving as the first U.S. ambassador to Mexico, where the locals called it "Flor de Noche Buena" (Christmas Eve flower). He brought the flower home with him in 1829 and found that it grew very well in his green house. And by 1836 the plant was adopted as an American Christmas tradition and became widely-known as "poinsettia." The "Red Poinsettia" is said to represent the blood that Jesus shed for our sins. The "White Poinsettia" represents that He was a pure gift given to us by God. This legend also exists about the Poinsettia in that "The Star of Bethlehem" shone so brightly that night upon the cold darkness of the earth that the earth responded by bringing forth the plant, which mirrored the "Star" by producing "White Petals" with a "golden star" in the center. When Jesus died upon the cross many of the flowers' petals turned red representing the blood that He shed but, others remained white to remind us of His purity.

Defending Our Religious Liberty

Religious freedom is a cornerstone of our democracy. The federal health care mandate fundamentally alters the fragile balance between government and religious groups created by the framers of our Constitution. The same First Amendment that protects religious freedom protects freedom of the press. We wouldn't stand for the government telling news programs whom to interview or what articles to write. If you haven't done so already, please voice your opposition to the mandate by calling President Obama at the White House at 202-456-1111 or U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Sylvia Mathews Burwell at 202-205-5445. Let them know that the mandate is in violation of our First Amendment right to religious freedom.

Candle Offering Reminder

The votive candles located in our worship space beneath the statue of our Blessed Mother are available for your lighting in prayerful remembrance and special intention. The suggested offering is $1.00 and is to be placed into the self-contained box located in the center of each of the two racks. Please remember to light a candle from the top rows DOWN, to avoid the risk of injury which can be caused by placing your arm over a lighted votive. Thank you.
