From Sisters Maureen & Theresa—House of Bread

Dear Msgr. Motta, George Crowley and Friends at St. Mary Star of the Sea,

We, at the House of Bread, are deeply grateful for the time and energy put into the successful Sept. 29th Golf tournament. The donation of $4,457.14 and $1,100 Stop and Shop cards will greatly assist our program for the hungry and needy in Hartford. Thank you again for your continued support and generosity.

Tutors Needed:

The House of Bread, a non-profit multi-service agency and a ministry of the Sisters of St. Joseph, is seeking volunteer tutors (especially retired teachers and social workers) for its adult education (GED) program and ESOL classes.

The GED classes are held Monday through Thursday, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. at the House of Bread's North Main Street classrooms. Tutors are needed for one or two mornings a week to work with one to three women seeking their high school equivalency degree. Please call Sister Theresa Fonti, CSJ, or Sister Maureen Faenza, CSJ, at 860. 549.4188, Ext. 202 for additional information.

The ESOL (English for Speakers of Other Languages) classes for adults are held Monday through Thursday, 9:30 – 11:30 a.m. at the House of Bread's Jubilee House facility, a former convent adjacent to St. Augustine School at 40 Clifford Street (off Maple Ave.) in Hartford's South End. Please call Sister Anne Brown, CSJ, ESOL Program Director, at 860. 247.3030, Ext. 108 for additional information.
